PROGRAM NOTES:

The Four Bitchin' Babes® presents Hormonal Imbalance™...A Mood Swinging Musical Revue!

(rev. 21-April-2014) p 1 of 1

Start with four richly gifted singer-songwriters - Add 3/4 cup married life, 4 kids, 3 cats, one dog, one piano, a bunch of guitars, ukuleles, mandolins, and a rocking' pink bass, a dollop of sharp social commentary, and a pinch of PMS. Set this on the road to tour for 20 years, throw in a hot flash or two and you've got Hormonal Imbalance™...A Mood Swinging Musical Revue!, an estrogen fueled hilarious new show that celebrates the best of "Babes, Boys, and Botox," starring the Four Bitchin' Babes.

"The BABES stir the heart as well as the funny bone." Billboard

"Part serious song craft, part free form therapy... funny, smart, tuneful, and sophisticated." Augusta Chronicle

After nine recordings, and one full length concert DVD, this Funny Fab Female Folkestra of indestructible Divas are hotter than ever. Literally!

With sorority sister chemistry, this musical revue is one part comedy road show, one part celebration of hearth and home. Performing original songs and stories, the Babes offer both poignant views and unbridled comedic commentary on the joys and dilemmas of everyday life. Covering such topics as the neglectful Boob Fairy, the fine art of being a high school cheerleader, promising to never pay retail, finding a man who cooks, and finally, demanding that it's nobody's "business if we want Botox!" and that we all just yearn to live victoriously after the Romantic Bubble Bursts.

Sit back and enjoy an entertaining evening with these outrageously funny and multi-talented musician "gal pals" as they examine and ultimately celebrate the lives of today's men and women as we all search for BALANCE!

One question remains: How can funny sound this pretty?

"Together they tell humorously observant tales of modern urban life, and harmonize like a heavenly chorus." The Chicago Tribune

OUR CAST

Sally Fingerett, a second-chance-newly-wed turning 49 for the eighth time, is "Changing." Her daughter leaves for college, her new husband and stepsons leave the seat up, and with her nest and body in transition, she laments "Is it hot in here or is it me?" while sticking her head in the freezer.

Debi Smith, a Goddess to her husband and son, knows what to do with all 95 pieces in a Sears Craftsman tool kit, can identify antifreeze by its fragrance, and makes pesto from her garden. She sings, she paints, she's elegant, and looks good playing a wacky Irish drum. How come we still like her?

Deirdre Flint, a 40-something Single Sophisticate, searches for Mr. Right while listening to her heart, her judgmental girlfriends and her inner guidance counselor. Blaming the neglectful "Boob Fairy," she still mourns never having made her high school cheerleading squad. But tomorrow's another day.

Nancy Moran is the haughty independent half of a DINK couple. (Double Income No Kids.) Living in Nashville with her adoring and fabulous husband who cooks and cleans, it's hard to figure out why on earth she has, hmm, an attitude? Stand back -- the honesty is about to flow!
