

Jonatha Brooke has been writing songs, making records and touring since the early 90's. After four major label releases, she started her own independent label, Bad Dog Records in 1999, and has since released eight more albums including the companion CD to her critically acclaimed one woman, Off-Broadway show My Mother Has 4 Noses (which ran for 10 weeks) and her most recent studio release, the timely Midnight. Hallelujah..

In recent years, Jonatha has co-written songs with Katy Perry (for her album PRISM), and The Courtyard Hounds. She's also written for four Disney films, various television shows, and composed the theme song for Joss Whedon's Dollhouse.

Currently, Ms. Brooke is working on two other musical projects - Quadroon, with the music of contemporary jazz pianist Joe Sample; and Switched (working title), with playwright Geoffrey Nauffts, and director Sheryl Kaller.
