

The Folk Years refers to that period in the early Sixties (and late Fifties) when something called the “Folk Craze” or “Folk Boom” was happening in American pop music. Everyone was picking up the guitar or banjo and learning folk songs or listening to them at parties and coffeehouses.

Dan Hicks and the Hot Licks Salute the Folk Years’ repertoire will include selections from the artists that became nationally famous and made this music the phenomenon that it was.

In addition to a selection of their own classic originals, Dan Hicks and the Hot Licks will play and sing songs of...

- ...the Limelighters
- ...Mississippi John Hurt
- ...Jim Kweskin
- ...Pete Seeger and the Weavers
- ...The Kingston Trio
- ...The Roof Top Singers
- ...Buffy St. Marie
- ...Lightin' Hopkins
- ...Koerner
- ...Ray and Glover
-Peter, Paul and Mary, among others.

These performers, appearing on television shows such as ABC's “Hootenanny” and playing massive folk festivals throughout the country, paved the way for future styles of pop music to come – ever heard of folk-rock!?
