

Workshops With The Sweet Remains:

- Songwriting & Harmonies

A discussion of the craft of songwriting, differing techniques and approaches, and the process of developing vocal blend and harmonies.

- The Recording Process

A discussion of how the band approaches the recording of a new album, from selecting the songs, developing arrangements and bringing the songs to life.

- Filmmaking & Music | The Independents

A discussion of the filmmaking process behind the creation of the band's feature film, The Independents, from concept through script development, filming to post-production, as well as the process of integrating music to push the narrative forward.

